ALL ABOUT ME

Theresa Rozmus was born and raised in Pennsylvania in a Slovenian family.

Growing up, she was part of a large household and is the youngest of eight siblings. She also has a twin, which made her childhood especially special. After graduating from high school, Theresa went on to work as a bank teller. Later, she got married and had one son, Michael. Today, Michael lives close to her in Harrisonburg and has two daughters, making Theresa the proud grandmother of two granddaughters. One of Theresa's favorite travel destinations was Florida, where she especially enjoyed the beach atmosphere and the warm weather.

Throughout her life, Theresa has enjoyed a variety of hobbies. Some of her past and current favorites include bowling, golfing, taking relaxing walks, and sewing.

Some on-campus activities you might find Theresa attending include game hours, theater events, shopping trips, crafts, and of course, ice cream outings.

We absolutely love having Theresa as part of our community and are very thankful she is here.
